FORGERY AND PIRACY
PARRY AND CO.

Beg to caution the public that the TRADE MARKS of many of the Firms they represent are PIRATED and by this means SPURIOUS and WORTHLESS goods are foisted on purchasers, instead of the GENUINE articles.

The SHAM labels are wonderfully well got up to fulfil their nefarious mission.

Some of them bear a forgery of manufacturer's signature, others have apocryphal signatures, one or two letters being altered (in a) artistic a manner as almost to defy detection. Whilst many bear NO NAME whatever, but in general appearance closely resemble the authentic labels.

We have taken LEGAL PROCEEDINGS, and trust that the heavy penalties accorded under the Trade Mark Law will put a stop to FORGERY and PIRACY.

The following particulars may prevent many from being duped by dishonest dealers as they will enable the purchaser to detect imitations, and insist on obtaining the genuine articles—

Crosse and Blackwell. Pickles

See that the well known white and gold arched top label bearing their name and address (21 Soho-Square, London) is on the bottle, and also look for the name and address on top and signature on side of capsule, without none are genuine.

JAMS and JELLIES of this famous brand also bear C and B's name on labels.

FRENCH CAPERS. Legitimate only when C. & B.'s name and address is found on label and capsule; avoid similar bottles which bear NO NAME on label or capsule.

Arthur Guinness Son & Co.'s Extra Stout

BEWARE of a very well executed and most dangerous imitation of the famous HARP LABEL. This even bears a FORGERY of GUINNESS' SIGNATURE as well as PIRACY of the TRADE-MARK.

PIG BRAND STOUT

None is legitimate without the signature of the proprietors (Messrs William Edmonds Jr & Co.) on capsule, their label on side and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on neck of Bottle.

Bull Dog, bottling of Bass & Co.'s Pale Ale

Genuine only when the bottle bears Messrs BASS & Co.'s world renowned RED TRIANGLE trade label on one side, Messrs. READ BROS.'S BULL DOG LABEL on the other and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on the neck.

Washington Morton and Alfred Morton & Co.'s

Celebrated WINES & FINE CHAMPAGNE BRANDIES. Every bottle of the genuine bears their name on capsule, cork and label, and our signature as SOLE AGENTS at foot of the latter.

Rimmel's Brown Windsor Soap

Each cake of the genuine has the maker's name moulded on one side and the words SOLE AGENTS PARRY & Co. Buenos Aires, on the other.

Lea and Perrins Sauce

The label on EVERY bottle of the genuine WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE bears the signature LEA & PERRINS and OUR name amongst the list of WHOLE SALE AGENTS.

Colman's Mustard, Corn Flour Blue, Starch

None of these are genuine unless they bear the BULLS HEAD Trade Mark. Inferior goods packed and labelled in a manner calculated to deceive, are freely offered in the most shameless manner. Ask for and see that you get J & J COLMAN'S genuine productions which all bear their name, Trade Mark BULL'S HEAD and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS for this Republic.

Angostura Bitters

The market is INUNDATED with immitations, which are WORTHLESS and INJURIOUS. Every bottle of the genuine article bears on the neck our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Epps's Breakfast Cocoa and Chocolate

Every packet of the legitimate article bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Eugene Clicquot's Champagne

Each bottle of this renowned brand bears the registered trade label of the proprietor and our SIGNATURE LABEL AS SOLE AGENTS.

Old Tom Gin

Invalid Port

GREAT ATTENTION and care have been dedicated by Messrs BOORD & SON to this SPECIALITY, and we can confidently recommend it.

Fine Pale Sherry

Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S well know white label bears also our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS. As an agreeable light ECONOMICAL dinner wine, it is not to be excelled.

Lorne Whisky

Has an enviable reputation all over the world. every bottle of this PURE HIGHLAND WHISKY bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Red Heart Rum

Justly celebrated for its great age, purity and other excellent qualities and specially recommended as a preventive for CHOLERA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLD &tc. is genuine only when capsules are stamped and the corks branded HENRY WHITE & Co. and when each bottle bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS above the Red Heart label.

Real Hollands Pig Brand

Keiller's Lozenges, Drops and Confectionery

Jellies made with the greatest facility in a few minutes possessing the whole of the nutriment without the impurities of the calvesfeet. Each genuine packet bears the signature of GEORGE NELSON and our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Bumsted's Royal British Table Salt

This refined article is obtained from natural and pure brine springs and is vastly superior to the ordinary quality. Each bottle bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label in the CENTRE of that of the manufacturer.

Anglo Bavarian Ale

VIENNA 1873, FIRST CLASS PRIZE. GOLD MEDAL PARIS, 1878. To those accustomed to drink GERMAN ALE we strongly recommend this light and pleasant beverage.

Champagne Cider,

Tea.

We guarantee all our brands PURE and of the VERY BEST QUALITY, and caution the public against receiving any boxes that have been OPENED and the LEADS CUT, as we know that our empty packages are RE-FILLED WITH INFERIOR MIXTURES and offered for sale as genuine. Each box bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label.

Attention.

Notwithstanding the HEAVY PENALTIES inflicted by the Trade Mark Law, individuals will persist in FORGING the signatures and IMITATING the Trade Marks of CELEBRATED AND WELL-KNOWN manufacturers NON-RESIDENT in this country, whilst they are very chary and frightened of doing so in the case of a firm living on the spot. We therefore strongly advise the public to take the goods for which we are Agents ONLY when they bear OUR LABELS.

RAILWAY GUARANTEES.

The high price of Argentine Six-per-Cent stock in London, and the very low quotations of some of our guaranteed Railway Seven-per-Cent Shares, has given rise to a correspondence in the London papers that affects Argentine credit.

The error of these railway guarantees is so apparent that it is probable no more railways will be built in this country on such terms—first, because it is onerous on the country granting the guarantee, and secondly, because of the correspondence to which we refer, which has let the light in on the nature of these guarantees, the delays attending their collection, and the long adjustment of accounts that has to be gone into, giving to the Government an interference in the management which no self-paying line would for a moment tolerate.

The letter which we give at foot has had the run of most of the English papers, and is written in reply to a rather severe letter which appeared previously in the Telegraph, charging the Argentine Government with default. When we take into account the very large sums which Dr. Plaza paid away last year for railway guarantees, we consider the charges made by the London shareholders most unfair, and fully agree with the writer of the subjoined letter in his remarks about the Argentine Government and its honest intentions. The following is the letter referred to:—

EAST ARGENTINE RAILWAY.

Mr. Editor,

Seeing there has been but little of note in print lately on this valuable and rising Company, I venture to offer a few remarks upon it. I have closely watched its movements and traffic for a long time, and the result is satisfactory in the extreme. Up to December 14th the traffic receipts amount to as follows:—

Jan 1 to Dec. 14, 1879	£23,895
" 1878	17,531
Increase 1879	£6,364
And for two weeks and two days to Dec. 31 an increase of	250
Making 1879 total increase of	£6,614
Estimated total, 1879	£ 35,000
Deduct expenses	22,500
	£12,500

This is no small increase on so small a whole year's traffic, being nearly 30 per cent. This is a decided feature in the great prosperity and improvement in Argentine trade and property.

After paying the coupons due 1st December last, from reliable information before me, I perceive there was a balance in hand of about £7,000. I here presume the Argentine Government to have paid nothing since November last on account of their guarantee. Deduct the estimated working expenses for year 1879 of £22,500 (this, I think, I over calculate rather than under) from the traffic above shown, you have a surplus of £2500 from net profit of line, verifying the General Manager's opinion that 1879 will not see a deficiency. This he expressed in the summer. Now, from these figures you have £9,500 to deal with in interim. £8,350 will pay a 5s. per share division, and consequently the Directors have it in their power, I fancy, to declare such, or an approximate one in this month, if they choose. Now a word as to the arrears the shares carry. Three years at 28s. and 23s. on account 1876 is £5 7s. See the importance of this. Shares at the low price of £14 carrying all these arrear payments due from a thoroughly honest Government (for what can be greater proof than their honesty in regard to their foreign debt through all their evil persuaders' bad proposals), who will undoubtedly pay their debt to this Company, are valuable indeed, and ought to be bought at once by people who desire to increase their capital. See the other Government Guaranteed Rails in Brazil at the price they command. The East Argentine will be the same. Those who think as you do, and I also, are right. I never for one moment believed the rumours lately promulgated on this sensible Republic joining the war, and never parted with one pennyworth of my holding of Argentine property, and it is a large one. I hope that the investing public may derive benefit and money from this.

A firm believer in the Argentine Government

THE AMATEUR THEATRICALS

The amateur performance given on Wednesday night in aid of the Irish Relief Fund proved a brilliant success; the house was well filled, with the exception of the higher tier of boxes almost every seat was sold. President Avellaneda was unable to attend, being out at Temperley, but sent a polite note to the committee stating that Minister Zorilla, Minister of Interior, would fill his box. H.E. Governor Tejedor and Madame Tejedor arrived early and were escorted to the state box by Messrs, Forrester and Carroll of the committee. The house was so full that it is really hard to say who was not there, and the receipts of the night were much increased through the industry of Mr Bankier, who took charge of the silk programmes, and at one period of the night, with the aid of Mr Robert Ramsay, held an auction for their sale. Having already published the plots of the different pieces, it is unnecessary to repeat them. The 'Kiss in the Dark' seems admittedly to have been the best, since there was less of the exaggerated grotesque about it, and Mrs. Pettibone played her part admirably and was much admired. Mr W. Martin as Pettibone, the London stock-broker, was, as always, inimitable, and drew the house down in roars, whilst Mr Fathom almost rivalled Mr Honey in his flirtations with the young and pretty wife of the broker. Mary made a capital servant girl, and Mrs. Fathom came so late on the scene that it is hard to say if she is an equally good flirt, although Cowper, we believe, it is who has said all women are at heart flirts. Messrs. Sullivan and Martin won fresh laurels in this piece, at the conclusion of which Messrs. Carroll and Forrester of the committee presentd Mrs. Pettibone, Mrs. Fathom and Mary with beautiful bouquets.

The second piece was less successful, due to the vain attempt of young men attempting to play a woman's part. The best character by far was David, the trusty servant, who saves his master by his plain speaking and honest conduct when attempted to be suborned by Miss Yellowleaf, about the worst attempt at a conniving old maid we ever witnessed. Sir Paul, the Nabob, was perhaps a little too feeble. Dr. Nevil, as the English gentleman, was at home in a part that so suited him. Mr Quirk, as Charlotte, was as good as his assumed petticoats would allow. Onslow was the very essence of the Park swell, and the curtain fell as a committee of the house presented to Mr W. Martin a magnificent bouquet with the photographs of the amateurs.

We find a difficulty in criticising 'The Illustrious Stranger,' the most unattractive feature of the evening, and this not through the fault of the players, who, one and all, down to the smallest boy in the procession, acquitted themselves admirably, but simply from the fact that the Bowbell of the original piece is not an Irishman (as his name sufficiently attests), and not all Mr. Henry Martin's undeniable talents and broad fun could make any Irish spectator present swallow the idea that putting 'Patrick' instead of Benjamin before Bowbell's name in the programme was sufficient to make his role an Irish one. The original Bowbell is a Cockney, born within the sound of Bow Bells, and under the sun there are not two beings so widely different in every way as the reckless, impulsive Irishman and the Londoner whom the author depicts in this play. Truly or falsely, popular belief has it, that for fighting or making love (his enemies add 'making punch') Pat has no superior under the sun. Being buried alive or blown over the moon, for the sake of a pretty girl, be she Princess or peasant, would, we should say, be considered mere 'thrifles' by any Irishman we have ever heard of, at least on the stage; and Bowbell's craven anxiety to escape his threatened fate is about the most unlikely way in which a genuine, rollicking, devil-may-care son of Erin would be likely to meet the emergency. Tyrone Power or Barry Sullivan himself could not make an Irishman of Bowbell's part, and when we have said this we have said enough to save Mr. Henry Martin from too severe a criticism on his ungrateful role of Wednesday evening. He did his best 'to make a silk purse out of a sow's ear,' and the chief fault we have to find with him is his tendency to exaggerate, but being a young actor he can cure this, if he wishes. As for the other characters, they were all so well played that only now and then throughout the piece was the audience reminded that amateurs were before them. The Princess and her Abigail were both charming enough to make even a Cockney go through fire and water for either of them, and we truly pitied our countryman Martin being obliged to refuse to go through earth for such a charming wife. Both ladies played their parts with much grace and spirit, and the beautiful bouquets presented to them were well won. The male characters were ably sustained, especially the King, by Mr. Colin Campbell, his Embalmer, by Mr. Short, and the young Prince by Mr. Tate: Messrs. Mackern were 'to the manner born' as High Priest and Court Doctor, and Mr. M'Kinlay. as Chief Officer, had an 'off with his head' look that was very imposing. The 'mise en scene' really astonished us from its perfection: and the stage manager, Mr. Peake, deserves the highest credit—he must have had a hard time of it. The dresses, decorations, processions, &c, would have done credit to a London theatre. Professor Rajneri had his orchestra in perfect trim—'St. Patrick's Day in the Morning' could not have been better played in Dublin or Cork.

In conclusion we must warmly congratulate the amateurs on the great success of the entertainment. In after years they will have the right to look back on St. Patrick's Day 1880 as a date on which they achieved one of their proudest histrionic triumphs in the cause of suffering Ireland. In the name of our countrymen here and at home we tender them heart-felt thanks.

The Salier and Niger's Mails.

London, Feb. 19th.

In the House of Lords, the Earl of Beaconsfield explained the answer which he gave on Tuesday respecting the occupation of Herat by the Persians. A debate on Irish distress occupied most of the sitting.

In the Commons, the adjourned debate on the report of the Address was resumed, and on a division Mr O'Donnell's amendment was negatived by a large majority. The House afterwards discussed the Relief of Distress (Ireland) and other bills.

It is reported at Teheran that the Persian Government contemplates taking active steps in the spring to occupy Afghan Seistan, and eventually Herat; also that it proposes the appointment of an European Commission for the definition of the North-Eastern and Attrek frontiers of Persia. It is added that the British Government has accepted the proposals and conditions submitted by the Persian Government. Our Vienna correspondent telegraphs that the greater portion of the Persian troops destined for the eventual occupation of Herat are at present concentrated at Khorassan.

Count Stolberg, Minister of State, opened the German Parliament, and read the Speech from the Throne, which announces that the Budget will be immediately submitted to the Reichstag, and that an increase in the matriculatory contributions of the different States and a loan to meet the most urgent items of expenditure will be required. After referring to the necessity of the reorganisation and development of the bases of the Imperial military law relating to the army system, and the re-enactment of the Socialist law, the Speech concludes with the assurance that the relations of the Empire with all foreign Powers are peaceful and friendly.

Colonels Morton and Coope will leave for Trebizond and Bitlis on the 14th inst., to take command of the gendarmery in those districts.

In the Roumanian Chambers the emancipatory legislation is stated to be progressing slowly; nevertheless, almost daily some Jews are naturalised.

Intelligence has been received at Washington by the Spanish Minister that the Cuban rebels Maceo and Guillermon have been defeated by Spanish troops; 225 of the insurgents surrendered to the Spanish commander.

Chung How, the late Chinese Minister to Russia, who signed the treaty ceding a part of Kuldja to that Power, is reported to have been disgraced by the Imperial Government.

A report is current in Rome that the Vatican has resumed the examination of the project for placing the Roman Catholic Church in England under the immediate jurisdiction of the Holy See.

Among the passengers from the Cape by the Royal Mail steamer Nubian, which arrived off Plymouth, is Captain Mills, who has come to England as Special Commissioner, to adjust the proportion to be paid by the colony towards the expenses of the late war.

At Barnstaple the Liberal candidate was elected by a majority of 96, the poll being Viscount Lymington, 817; Sir Robert Carden, 721.

In the Divorce Division of the High Court of Justice Sir James Hannen and a special jury were engaged in hearing a cause (not yet concluded), in which Dr J. H. Bradbury, of Salford, sought a dissolution of marriage on the ground of his wife's alleged adultery with Captain Francis Read Brownrigg, of the 106th Regiment of Foot. The allegation was denied by the respondent and the co-respondent. The former, who was only seventeen years of age when married in 1871, was stated to be in delicate health, the petitioner stating, in cross-examination, that he should think she had not long to live.

At the Marlborough-street Police-court yesterday Mr William Henry Stephens, solicitor, of 45, Parliament-street, was brought up for further examination on the charge of forging and uttering a promissory not for £2,000, with intent to defraud. Evidence was also given in respect of the two other bills, each for a like amount which the prisoner was alleged to have forged and raised money upon. The documents purported to be signed by Mr Apcar, a former client of the prisoner's, who deposed that the signatures were fictitious. Mr Mansfield directed another remand, and refused bail.

Yesterday public securities were flat in the morning, but closed firmer, with an advance in many of the foreign bonds and railway stocks. Amongst the latter, Lancashire and Yorkshire rose 1½, and Caledonian and North British about ¾. Canadian lines, however, gave way. Consols were unaltered for cash, at 97⅞, 98, but advanced 1-16 per cent for the account, to 97 15 16, 98 1-16. A favourable Bank return was issued, the 'proportion' being 49¾ p. cent.

Constantinople has been very unfortunate of late. During some festivities at the barracks at Beykoi, a building fell in, and it is stated that two hundred soldiers were killed and three hundred injuried. Great and general distress throughout the middle and lower classes is also reported from the Turkish capital. Several ex-officers of the army, who have resigned in sheer despair of ever getting their arrears of pay, may be seen painfully earning their bread as porters in the streets of Galata. A short time ago, the Municipality having failed to keep its engagements to the Gas Company, the latter cut off the supply of gas, and Constantinople was plunged into Cimmerian darkness for one whole long winter's night, to the consternation of its respectable inhabitants. Next day the Municipality contrived to scrape together the sum required to appease the Gas Company's righteous wrath, and the lights reappeared after sundown. Highly significant of the straits to which the middle-class Stamboulis are reduced is the fact that the small householders in the neighbourhood of Bajazid Mosque have taken to shooting the pigeons that inhabit the roof and purlieus of that sacred edifice, enjoying from time immemorial absolute immunity from molestation, because, as it were, born and bred in the odour of sanctity. These pigeons hitherto protected by the municipal and religious authorities, and assiduously fed by the inhabitants of their parish, are daily falling victims to the hunger of their former friends and patrons, who wage war upon them with relentless perseverance. So conscientious a Conservative as a Mussulman bourgeois or proletary must indeed be hard put to it for a meal when he breaks with so venerable a tradition as that which enjoins him to spare the lives of the holy pigeons that sojourn in and about the Bajazid Mosque.

Respecting the burning of the Theatre Royal, Dublin, the Telegraph says:—

"Mr. Micheal Green, having obtained the concurrence of the Lord Lieutenant, organised some dramatic festivals in aid of the Irish Famine Fund. Only a few days before the disaster there had been a State night at the old theatre, and the Lord-Lieutenant, the Duchess of Marlborough, and all the Castle folk had been preceded by cavalry, and conducted to the play with a torch-light procession. Good humour and good will animated the whole assembly, and every allusion to the patriotism of the Viceroy and his excellent wife called down thunders of applause. According to all accounts, nothing could have gone off better, and on the following Monday afternoon the Duchess of Marlborough had arranged to attend another morning performance in aid of the public subscription for the alleviation of distress in Ireland. This contribution to a noble charity was, however, destined not to be made, for at the very moment when the audience ought to have been assembled the house was in a blaze. It is interesting to learn, upon the evidence already presented, how instantaneously a theatre may be set on fire, and how apparently hopeless is the case when the flames have once obtained a hold. The theatre was old, and burned like tinder. It was stocked with inflammable materials used for the pantomime; the beams and panellings were like matchboards; and soon, although the house was comparatively deserted, every thing was in the wildest confusion, It it had not been for the smoke, some order and discipline might have prevailed, but so sudden was the conflagration and so rapid the spread of the fire that no one appears to have known who was in the theatre and who was not. The ballet girls who had arrived in good time, and who were shut up in their rooms, cut off from all escape by the smoke, were rescued from upper windows, and let into the street by ropes; the wife and the children of the caretaker, surprised by the flames, were literally dragged through the smoke by an heroic and desperate impulse; two poor children sewed up in an ass's skin, and destined to personate the front and hind legs of a pantomime donkey, are said to have been roasted in their helpless condition; several of the attendants are missing; and the stage manager, Mr Egerton, faithful to his trust, and bravely anxious to save the books of the theatre at the risk of his life, died a victim to his unselfish devotion. Outside the burning house, surrounded as it was with the dwellings of a crowded neighbourhood, there were accidents of more or less gravity, due to falling walls and imprudent deeds of daring. The great point, however, to be remembered is this, that within not more than five minutes of a curtain catching fire in a box of a theatre the building was doomed, and escape, unimpeded, was all but impossible."

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is with much satisfaction that I again resort to the advice and assistance of my Parliament.

My relations with all the Powers continue to be friendly. The course of events since the prorogation of Parliament has tended to furnish additional security to the maintenance of European peace, on the principles laid down by the Treaty of Berlin. Much, however, still remains to be done to repair the disorder with which the late war has affected many parts of the Turkish Empire.

A Convention for the suppression of the Slave Trade has been concluded between my Government and that of His Imperial Majesty the Sultan.

At the close of your last Session I expressed my hope that the Treaty of Gundamak had happily terminated the war in Afghanistan. In conformity with its provisions, my Envoy, with his retinue, was honourably received and entertained by the Ameer at Cabul. While engaged, however, in the exercise of their duty, he and those connected with the Embassy were treacherously attacked by overwhelming numbers, and, after an heroic defence, were almost all massacred. An outrage so intolerable called for condign chastisement, and my troops which, pursuant to the stipulations of the Treaty, either had withdrawn or were withdrawing from the territories governed by the Ameer, were ordered to retrace their steps. The skill exhibited in the rapid march upon Cabul, and in the advances upon the other lines of action, reflects the highest credit upon the officers and men of my British and native forces, whose bravery has shone with its wonted lustre in every collision with the enemy.

The abdication of the Ameer and the unsettled condition of the country render the recall of my troops impossible for the present; but the principle on which my Government has hitherto acted remains unchanged, and while determined to make the frontiers of my Indian Empire strong, I desire to be in friendly relations alike with those who may rule in Afghanistan and with the people of that country.

My anticipations as to the early establishment of peace in South Africa have been fulfilled. The capture and deposition of the Zulu King, and the breaking up of the military organization on which his dynasty was based, have relieved my possessions in that part of the world from a danger which has seriously impeded their advancement and consolidation. In Basutoland, a native outbreak of considerable importance has been effectually quelled by my Colonial forces; while the Transvaal has been freed from the depredations of a powerful Chief, who, having successfully resisted the former government of the country, had persistently rejected our attempts at conciliation. I have reason to hope that the time is now approaching when an important advance may be made towards the establishment of a Union or Confederation under which the powers of self-government, already enjoyed by the inhabitants of the Cape Colony, may be extended to my subjects in other parts of South Africa.

Papers on these and other matters will be forthwith laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.

I have directed the Estimates of this year to be prepared and presented to you without delay.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Commission which, at the close of the Session, I informed you I had issued to inquire into the causes of agricultural depression throughout the United Kingdom, is pursuing its labours. In the meantime, the serious deficiency in the usual crops in some parts of Ireland has rendered necessary special precautions on the part of my Government to guard against the calamities with which those districts were threatened.

With this view, they have called upon the authorities charged with the duty of administering relief to make ample preparations for the distribution of food and fuel, should such a step become necessary, and they have also stimulated the employment of labour by advances on terms more liberal than those prescribed by the existing law.

I feel assured that you will give your sanction to the course which has been adopted where it may have exceeded the power entrusted by Parliament to the Executive Government.

A proposal will be submitted to you for providing the funds required for the exceptional advances on the security of the property administered by the Church Temporalities Commissioners.

I trust you will be able to resume the consideration of the Criminal Code, and of the Improvement of the Law of Baukruptcy.

Bills will be laid before you, for enlarging the powers of owners of Settled Land, for consolidating and amending the Lunacy Laws, and for simplifying the practice of Conveyancing.

I commend to you these and other measures which may be submitted for your consideration, and I trust that the blessing of the Almighty will attend and direct your labours.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The chief topic in all English speaking circles yesterday was the splendid success of the amateur performance at the Opera House on Wednesday evening in aid of the Irish Relief Fund. Everything went off 'a merveille:' not a single drawback of any kind—actors, orchestra, decorations, scenery—all well up to the mark. The Standard Gong was played by a master-hand: the Bells of Shandon could not sound more sweetly. The audience was a full but not overflowing one, yet we understand the nett receipts will be 40,000$ m/c., a noble contribution from the British Amateur Actors of Buenos Ayres to their distressed Irish countrymen. Governor Tejedor was present and seemed to enjoy the performance very much. We must compliment Mr. William Martin, Mr. Peake and all the other gentlemen who assisted in getting up the entertainment on the completeness of all the arrangements: not even the 'mas minimo' hitch occurred in anything, Perhaps one of the most grateful incidents of the evening was the presentation to Mr. William Martin, by the employees of the Opera House, of a magnificent bouquet together with their photographs. Mr. Martin is a favourite everywhere and with everybody. We do not wonder at it: he is Charity's right hand man in B. Ayres, and besides 'a jolly good fellow,—which nobody can deny.' We refer to the merits of the performance in another column.

There is nothing fresh in the political line. The uncertainty as to which of the Presidential candidates has the best chance of winning grows greater every day, and Zadkiel himself would hesitate to make a prophecy on the subject. The tremendous fire opened on General Sarmiento from some quarters shows how really formidable his competitors consider him.

We got 'blown up' yesterday by a subscriber in the building line for saying that the contractors were in fault for the tumble at the Mint on Wednesday, as it appears that a National Government Inspector superintends the work. Mr. White, Chief of the Engineer Department, says that the mishap befell owing to a defect in the manufacture of one of the iron girders. Nothing more probable—except the chance of the other materials and workmanship being also defective, as they too often are in this city.

We strongly recommend all our town readers to call at the well known library of Messrs Ygon Hms in Calle Bolivar, and inspect the plan of the Cathedral Church of Explation in connection with the work which the Revd. Kenelm Vaughan has recently initiated in this country. The plan is a superb lithograph by Akerman of London, the architect being Mr Henry Clutton, a near relative of His Eminence Cardinal Manning. When we say that the proposed Cathedral will be much larger than Westminster Abbey, it will be seen what a monumental work is in contemplation. The style is the purest Gothic. We have seen most of the great churches on the Continent of Europe, and can safely say that the proposed Cathedral in London will rival the best of them, excepting St. Peter's at Rome. Our Buenos Ayres architects should all take a look at this beautiful design: they will find it indeed 'a thing of beauty.'

The Road to Ruin, along which all the Great Powers of Europe are galloping in the way of enormous naval and military armaments, has now been entered by the small fry. Spain has found out that she requires more war vessels (to retake Gibraltar, perhaps?) and has begun by ordering a vessel of the same size and power as the monster Dulio. of the Italian navy, the most formidable (in size at least) war ship afloat. This is not a bad beginning for a power whose finances are the reverse of very flourishing.

Count Patrick, the Irish-Italian Wizard who is expected here next month from the Interior, has no fewer than 80 huge trunks and boxes in his train, all full of wonderful machinery for astounding the public. Buenos Ayres children will be on the look out for the Count.

Yesterday a general meeting of British Hospital subscribers was held, Mr. W Wilson in the chair. The report was read and adopted, and we hold particulars for to-morrow.

Owing to the difficulty about the trees in the Plaza Victoria, we hear it is probable the Exhibition will be held in the Plaza Once, which, after all, is an infinitely better place to hold it than the Plaza Victoria. We trust the Plaza Once men will push this business.

There is a stiff fuss going on in London about Argentine guaranteed railways. Particulars in another column.

There is nothing fresh from Montevideo; no Cabinet formed yet. They are getting very sensible down there: instead of spilling blood in their revolutions they spill 'the glorious vintage of Champagne.' After President Vidal was sworn in, there was a jollification in the salon of the Government House. Iced champagne flowed like water, and the utmost concord prevailed. With Colonel Latorre as Commander in Chief of the army, it is within the bounds of possibility that there will be no row over the water, for some time to come, at least.

Yesterday was even hotter than Patrick's Day, and there was a prodigious demand for 'refrescos' at all the restaurants. Strange that at so advanced a stage in the season the weather should be so hot. The Standard barometer looks rainish, but it is seldom that barometer can be taken by its looks. It belonged to a lawyer before we bought it.

The recent revolution in Cordova has caused a void in the University there. It appears that Dr. Barco, the Professor of Political Economy, had a finger in the pie, and when the police paid him an early morning visit they were told he was 'out of town.' A Professor of Political Economy is the last man in life one would suppose addicted to dabbling in revolution. We really could hardly be more surprised if we had heard that Dr. Gould had been caught leading a charge of patriots, sword in hand, to storm the Government House.

The America del Sur publishes the Pope's recent Encyclical to the Clergy of the world on the proposed Divorce Law in France.

No more locusts!! One of the directors of the C. A. Land Co. had some 106 English sparrows sent him from England per one of Messrs. Lamport and Holt's steamers, with the wise view, after several months' study, to eat up the locusts; but out of the 106 only three arrived alive, and one of these is not likely to live, so there will only be two left for the arduous task.

A boy who was thrown from his horse at Quilmes a few days ago, while galloping at John Gilpin speed, was killed on the spot, not from the fall, but by the knife in his belt going clean through his heart when he fell. Another youth of the same town also met an instantaneous death, while stealing figs, owing to the branch on which he sat snapping, and down he came: his brains were dashed out.

The Flower Market at the corner of Alsina and Peru has been rented for the twentieth time. The latest idea is to make a Fish market of it: a very good idea; but nothing seems to flourish in that quarter—fruit, flowers, fish or anything else.

The Leon de Caprera, the tiny vessel in which three brave Italians intend to sail from the River Plate to Europe, to visit Garibaldi, is now at the Boca, and we are expecting to hear from our indefatigable correspondent there about her. She is only 3¼ tons burthen, yawl-rigged, 27 feet long.

We regret to hear from Rosario that Mr. Brito, the eminent dentist, met with a very serious accident at Cañada de Gomez some days ago, He was riding a frisky horse, and the brute took it into its head to bolt. Mr. B. elected to throw himself off, instead of flying to ills he knew not off: in the fall he broke his right ankle. We hope soon to hear of his recovery.

BONNIE DUNDEE.

To the Editor of the Standard

Dear Sir

By the notice in your paper of the 14th inst. I see that Mr Kemmis has been maliciously or otherwise misinformed.

I refute his statement, never having said in public, or otherwise, that his gelding Bonnie Dundee (afterwards Sarjento) was an imported thoroughbred; but, in answer to Mr Anderson's queries, referred him to the 'General Stud Book,' vol. 13, page 54, which says: "Bonny Breastknot, foaled in 1859, own sister to Bonny Bell, 1870, B.C. Bonnie Dundee, by Adventurer, &c. &c.—sent to Buenos Ayres" (all bred by Mr. W J Anson); and remarked, as no one appeared to know what had become of the said yearling Bonnie Dundee, it seemed rather a strange coincidence.

I remain, yours truly,

Santiago Lawrie.

The gold market rules very unsteady, prices for long dates weakening, and the drop in exchange it is thought tells on the gold market; prices closed to-day ten cents over yesterday's closing rates. Treasury notes dropped ½, and Cedulas also fell off ½.

Due to the run out to the Lanus races, most of the brokers left earlier than usual to-day, as there was much excitement about this race, and very heavy bets made.

Gold opened at 30.50 and closed hard at 30.55. Several shipments of specie to the rivers were spoken of, and ready cash gold appears to be in more demand. The gold sales of the day reached 797,730 pats.

Cedulas rule a shade weaker, as also Treasury Notes, but National Bonds, 76, have advanced 1 on last sale.

A meeting of the Paris Exhibition Committee was held to-day, and all the arrangements for the distribution of prizes on Sunday at the Opera theatre concluded. Mr John Fair's representative is requested to attend to receive a gold medal, Mr Gache will preside. It promises to be a very grand affair.

The gold sales were:—

Mr. Krell, who has just arrived from London, was enveloped in friends when he entered the hall; Mr K. is son-in-law of the late and much lamentrd Mr Wheelwright, and as a large propertyholder of the country has a great River Plate connection. Things have undergone immense change in Santa Fe since he first settled up there.

Gold at afterhours weakened and sellers offered freely at 30.55, no buyers. One party offered a wager up to 100,000 m/c. that gold would sell at 30 m/c before it would sell at 31 m/c; only 5,000 m/c wager taken up.

Exchange closed for the Savoie mails to-day at 5.20, Paris. One Bank drew about 100,000 francs at 5.18, and then put rate down to 5.16. Exchange rules very weak, sterling 42½ takers.

With prophetic truth the Antwerp telegram of two days ago announced that wool had touched its highest. To-day the first news came of a turn in the Havre market. See telegram.

The sudden rise in Sovereigns in Rio attracted much notice. 11.300 means a very low exchange there. South American exchange on Europe at all points seems to be dropping.

Messrs Baltar and Quesada have sold the house No. 466 Moreno for 515,000 m/c, legal valuation 380,000 m/c.

"It is current that 98,000 bags of coffee have gone forward on account of the Bank of Brazil, to meet drafts on Europe not covered by remittances of mercantile bills.

"Henry W Hilliard, Minister to Brazil, will soon be removed. It is alleged that he is thoroughly incompetent. It is said that the Brazilian Mission will be offered to General Robert Schenck, formerly Grant's Minister to England."

The American barque Robt. Dillon cleared from New York to Montevideo on Feb. 4th, and brings—

23,000 gal. petroleum

Besides a large assortment of other goods.

On 31st March the Norwegian schooner Valborg, will be sold at public auction by order of the Consul.

The sale of the s.s. Campana which we mooted some time ago appears now to be confirmed; we hear she fetched about £9000.

A late telegram from Cuba dated Matanzas St. Patrick's day, is published by the Telegrafo, it runs so: Beef 20 reales and falling.

The steamer Para going from Rio to Bahia met a heavy gale and suffered great damage. The news from Ceara is excellent, it having rained copiously up there and all fears of drought dispelled. A Postal convention between Brazil and Portugal is about to be signed.

The balance sheet of the Nat. Bank, which we give at foot, bears the name of Mr C Diehl, the new sub-gerente; we cannot allow Mr Delgado's name to retire without tendering to him the thanks of the market for his very able discharge of so important a trust. Mr Delgado is a great favourite in the market, and all the brokers regret his retirement.

Capt. Urtubey writing from England says: the vessels building for the Arg. Government are progressing; next month (March) the transport will be ready and will sail for the Plate with the remains of San Martin, under command of Capt. Ramirez. The new iron clad Genl. Brown will be the strongest afloat and is also progressing.

Everything we find in the late American papers points to a splendid trade revival. The following has been handed us by an American merchant for publication, but we have other items of still greater import to publish when space will allow:—

"The Boston Journal says:—One of the most singular illustrations of the peculiar workings of the improved condition of business was related to us recently, and as a remarkable fact is worthy of record. A certain Boston dealer in gossamer light cloths for umbrellas sold in August last year 25,000 yards of cloth to a New York manufacturer of the gossamer umbrellas. The cloth being poor, the New Yorker returned it, and the goods were packed away. Last week the same New Yorker came on here to obtain much needed supplies, which are scarce, and the dealer actually sold him the same 25,000 yards of cloth at an advance of 20 per cent on the original transaction when the goods were first sold."

"The earnings of the Sagamore Manufacturing Corporation, of Fall River, Mass., for the past quarter are handsome, and a dividend of 10 per cent will be paid to the stockholders The dividend is large, because the capital stock is light, as the creditors of the old corporation acquired the property at a cheap price, so that the stock was considered worth nearly double its nominal value when the corporation was first organized. The capitalization scheme will in this case undoubtedly secure to the creditors of the old corporation, who are the owners of the new, dollar for dollar of their claims. The Wampanoag mill will pay a dividend of 3 per cent. Shove mill stock sold to-day at $104."

The Anglo-South American Agency and the Council of Foreign Bondholders have accredited a joint representative to Paraguay, for the purpose of urging the case of the bondholders of the Loans of 1871 and 1872, and endeavouring to effect a settlement, for which overtures have been made by the Government, on the basis of a cession of the 'yerbales' or indigenous tea plantations. Mr Granville H Milner, the agent selected, arrived here in the Maskelyne and proceeds to Asuncion.

Our advices from Rosario respecting wheat are as follows:—

Official statistics compiled by the Inspector of Colonies Santa Fe give the area under wheat in 1879 as 70,186 squares; allowing these to yield say 2 fanegas of 15 arrobas per square, over and above seed, we have 140,372 fanegas of wheat for consumption. This along with the statistics published in the Standard January 10th, this year, giving the crop of the Province of B. Aires 445,790 fan. of 9 arrobas, and calculating on the wheat of both provinces to give two-thirds its weight in flour, we have 3 1/5 arrobas for each inhabitant of the four riverine provinces, taking their population at 1,271,000. Some wheat has and will come from Cordoba, also flour from San Juan and Mendoza, but very little must be expected. This year's wheat crop has not been so plentiful as in former years in the Cuyo province.

"The Nashua Manufacturing Company are running 10½ hours time per day, turning out 40,000 yards of sheeting and flannels, and employing 1,000 hands.

"The Jackson Company, of Nashua, are turning out 215 bales of standard sheetings per week. This Company runs 26,000 spindles, works 64 hours a week and employs 800 hands.

"The Hadley Thread Company, of Holyoke, Mass., never were so crowded with business as now. Their product is 3,000 doz. a day, and they have advance orders for 167,000 doz.

"Whitcomb & Whitney, Morris, N. York, are running 7,000 spindles and 171 looms, on 56x60 printing cloths. They are now intending to increase their works by an addition to the mill, or a new mill.

"The Lawrence Manufacturing Company, of Lowell, Mass., are changing their old spinning frames to the new Rabbeth spindle, or what is known as the top spindle, and are going to run them at a speed of 8,000 revolutions per minute.

"The new woolen mill at North Hartland, Vt., is progressing under direction of the Otta Quechee Woolen Company. The new mill is to be annexed to the East end of the old building, is 30x40 feet, and is to be open in the early spring.

"The Unquomonk Silk Mills, of Holyoke, Mass., are now running full time, employing 225 hands and keeping 50 looms in operation. The factory is 200 by 40 feet, four stories high, and run by water power. They manufacture all kinds of sewing silks, aggregating 300 lbs per week, besides turning out a daily product of 500 yards of silk dress goods."

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 13th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Roduent Hall. Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."
